INTERNATIONAL LEGAL ENGLISH CERTIFICATE (ILEC)

ILEC assesses English language ability used in a legal context at Levels C1 and B2 in the Council of Europe's Common European Framework of Reference. It is at Level 2 and Level 1 in the UK National Qualifications Framework.

Further details of ILEC are given in the ILEC Handbook, and at www.cambridgeesol.org

For ILEC, there are three passing grades, C1 Pass with Merit, C1 Pass and B2 Pass.

A † symbol next to the grade indicates that the candidate was exempt from satisfying the full range of assessment objectives in the examination.

The Council of Europe's Common European Framework of Reference covers six levels of language proficiency. Research carried out by the Association of Language Testing in Europe (ALTE) shows what learners can typically do at each level. The table below gives examples of typical ability in the work domain in each of the skill areas for Council of Europe Levels C1 and B2.

Level C1	Listening and Speaking	Reading and Writing
	CAN follow discussion with only occasional need for clarification.	CAN understand the general meaning of more complex articles.
	CAN deal with unpredictable questions.	CAN, within a reasonably short time, understand most reports that they are likely to come across.
	CAN argue their case effectively and specify needs precisely.	CAN, given enough time, write a report that communicates the desired message.
	CAN engage in an extended conversation with a visitor on matters within their authority/competence.	CAN write most correspondence they are likely to be asked to do.

Level B2	Listening and Speaking	Reading and Writing
	CAN ask for factual information and understand the answer.	CAN understand the general meaning of non-routine correspondence.
	CAN ask questions, for example for clarification, while following a lecture, talk or presentation.	CAN understand the general meaning of articles and reports, even if the topic is not predictable.
	CAN express own opinion, and present arguments to a limited extent.	CAN write a simple report of a factual nature and begin to evaluate, advise, etc.
	CAN give a simple, prepared presentation on a familiar topic.	CAN write non-routine correspondence where this is restricted to matters of fact.

Further information and examples of the ability statements can be found at www.alte.org
